

MUSE ~ NEWS

art, design, music and style
past present and future
EXTRA - July 2011

In Trust for a Nation - A Jane Austen Treasure, The Watsons

From England comes the simply splendid news the Bodleian Libraries at the University of Oxford acquired the last Jane Austen original manuscript, which has been in private hands. Read More

La Cuisine Enchantée, Brillat-Savarin and Soyer

A focus on the art of food, the glories of taste and pleasures of the table may offer many a hope there is something beyond the daily struggle attached to just procuring and producing a meal. Read More

CafeSmart ? Make your Coffee Count on August 5th

Mark your diary now. On FRIDAY AUGUST 5 make your coffee habit count by supporting StreetSmart Australia as it brings Australian Cafe's and Coffee drinkers together to help homeless people.

Cafes participating are generously donating $1.00 per coffee.

For the list of supporting Cafe's please click here

Excerpts from Evolution of Art, Design & Style

There are a number of Excerpts now available for our online course. It is produced in podcast, ebook and video format. Watch the Preview and feel free to share the link with friends and colleagues. Read course outline

Change, Carbon, Crying - Paying the Price

It is much easier to be critical than correct but the public by and large is suitably and completely confused about a Carbon Tax. More images of our Prime Minister crying have not helped. Read More

Sherlock Holmes 2 Chasing Shadows

Robert Downey Junior having a Pretty Woman moment is something to look forward to let alone another adventure with the super sleuth himself, Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes 2 directed by Guy Ritchie. Read More

Tintin, Adventure and Art have a new Name

Ten thousand thundering typhoons. Adventure has a new name starting with A for Art. Herge's brilliantly drawn Belgian cub reporter hero Tintin is coming courtesy iconic filmmakers Spielberg, Jackson. Read More