

MUSE ~ NEWS

September 1st 2011
National Wattle Day

Wattle Day – Welcome Spring, Celebrate Life, Develop Culture

Winner Le Tour de France 2011 champion cyclist Cadel Evans acknowledged a gift of wattle during his Cadelebration at Melbourne. Wattle Day- 1st September is an important day for our truly multi-cultural society. For new arrivals it's a wonderful place to start; for those already here it's a great opportunity to reflect on a day that is all about regeneration and renewal. Read More

David Hendrson - Deepening the Mystery of Light at Venice

Brisbane artist David Henderson's 2011 Exhibition in the Graydon Gallery at New Farm is on NOW until Sunday 4th September. David constantly explores elusive qualities of light while seeking to access Venice's ever-deepening mysteries. Read More

Profound Happiness, Beauty and Bonsai - Garden Art in Japan

Japanese garden art challenges the onlooker to intellectualize their own ideas. Read More

Paradise in Purgatory, Kathryn Brimblecombe-Fox Finding Light

An intriguing exhibition of contemporary artworks exploring notions of Paradise will be held at the Purgatory Artspace, Melbourne opening Thursday 8th Sep. Read More

The Impressionists - A Painterly Pleasant French Revolution

This new TV series is a very clever, cocky and self-assured presentation about art in the modern era. It showcases those artists who over eight exhibitions at Paris between 1874 and 1886 made an impression. Read More

What Is: Art Nouveau, more than a tendril in time?

The style Art Nouveau was inspired by nature, centred on Paris and l'Ecole de Nancy group in Alsace-Lorraine, France. Read More

On Beauty and Progressing the Arts - Leon Battista Alberti

An advocate of humanism and a forerunner of Leonardo da Vinci Genoese born Leon Battista Alberti (1404-72) was a multi talented Renaissance man, one whose thirst for knowledge was only surpassed by his desire for more. Read More

Vale No Frills Nancy Wake, Feisty Lady a Heroine in Disguise

A leading figure of the French Resistance in World War II Nancy Wake was a no frills lady, an ordinary woman who accomplished extraordinary things. Vale Nancy

IN THIS ISSUE

David Hendrson - Deepening the Mystery of Light at Venice

Profound Happiness, Beauty and Bonsai - Garden Art in Japan

Paradise in Purgatory, Kathryn Brimblecombe-Fox Finding Light

The Impressionists - A Painterly Pleasant French Revolution

What Is: Art Nouveau, more than a tendril in time?

On Beauty and Progressing the Arts - Leon Battista Alberti

Vale No Frills Nancy Wake, Feisty Lady a Heroine in Disguise

RECENT CONVERSATIONS

Rescue Special Ops - Reflecting on a Parable about Love | Jane Eyre - searching for love in a house haunted by secrets

QUICK SNIPPETS OF CULTURE

Daily dose on our Home Page

Watch our You Tube Videos

BOOKS OF THE MONTH

RESIDENCE by Sydney based International Interior Designer Thomas Hamel

NOMA: Nordic Cuisine with Rene Redzepi

MUSIC OF THE MONTH

Catch Hannah Macklin's The Oh, Oh, Oh, Tour
2nd September Melbourne
3rd September Sydney

Contact Editor MUSE~NEWS
info@thecultureconcept.com
www.thecultureconcept.com
+61(0)398204012